

IRMTNZ ADVANCED COURSE

This course is approved by the Council of the Institute of Registered Music Teachers of New Zealand. Course Participants must hold New Zealand residency or citizenship and must have successfully completed the IRMTNZ Intermediate Course.

The IRMTNZ Advanced Course consists of three phases:

PHASE ONE

WE'RE IN THIS TOGETHER - networking, business practice, professional development resource development

PHASE TWO

'PEDAGOGY MATTERS'

COMPULSORY TASKS: the teaching of: theory, sight reading, aural training, musicianship, practical analysis, repertoire, style and interpretation, advanced technique

OPTIONS (SELECT 3): detailed studies of -baroque, classical, romantic, or 20th century, memorising and performance techniques, sitting practical diplomas

PHASE THREE

'IT'S YOUR TURN' AT CONTACT WORKSHOP - personal performance, practical teaching demo to peers, (Involving analysis, history, theory, aural, application) skills of teaching (involving Key Competencies and teaching/learning strategies)