Whaowhia te kete mātauranga - fill the basket of knowledge

Established by the Music Teachers Act 1981, the Institute of Registered Music Teachers of New Zealand \(IRMTNZ\) is Aotearoa New Zealand's only professional organisation for all private music teachers. IRMTNZ is a registered charity.

The generosity of our sponsors helps us to:

- Provide music teachers with continuous professional development
- Promote and encourage excellence in music education
- Provide opportunities for performance and encourage creativity
- Ensure that music continues to be part of the cultural heritage of Aotearoa New Zealand

We offer a range of sponsorship options and benefits in return.

SPONSORSHIP OPTIONS

IRMTNZ TEACHER TRAINING COURSE

IRMTNZ offers several Teacher Training Courses which are open to members and non-members. These include our popular Foundation Course which covers teaching from beginner to Grade 3 level, and raises awareness of the professional, intellectual and emotional processes involved in being a music teacher. The Course includes a one-day Contact Workshop: in 2022 we held three workshops, attended by 21 teachers, most of whom are just starting their career as a private music teacher. The average workshop costs $1000 - $1500 to run.
